Message From The Patron in Chief

- John Dewey

“Knowledge will take you to the places you want to go. Make sure that you recognize the significance of knowledge as a part of life and what it can do for you. If the fish is taken out of water, they would have no life. Knowledge is very similar for you.”

Message From The President

Shri Anilbhai Patel

“ You educate a man; you educate a man. You educate a woman; you educate a generation.”
- Brigham Young

Miles to go...

My heart, mind and conscience fill me with immense pleasure when I am addressing to the fresh aspirants willing to step up for the higher study. Education is one of the key measures for the development of any society. The Ganpat University is the joint effort of people with a mission to empower the youth through education. Excellent education is the only sure path to youth empowerment and to enable young minds to contribute in the overall growth of the nation.

Examples for the same can be sought from the personalities like Maharsi Arvind, Dr. Abdul Kalam, Shri Narayan Murthy and several others. Education is the backbone and sure-cure to every burning issue of any nation.

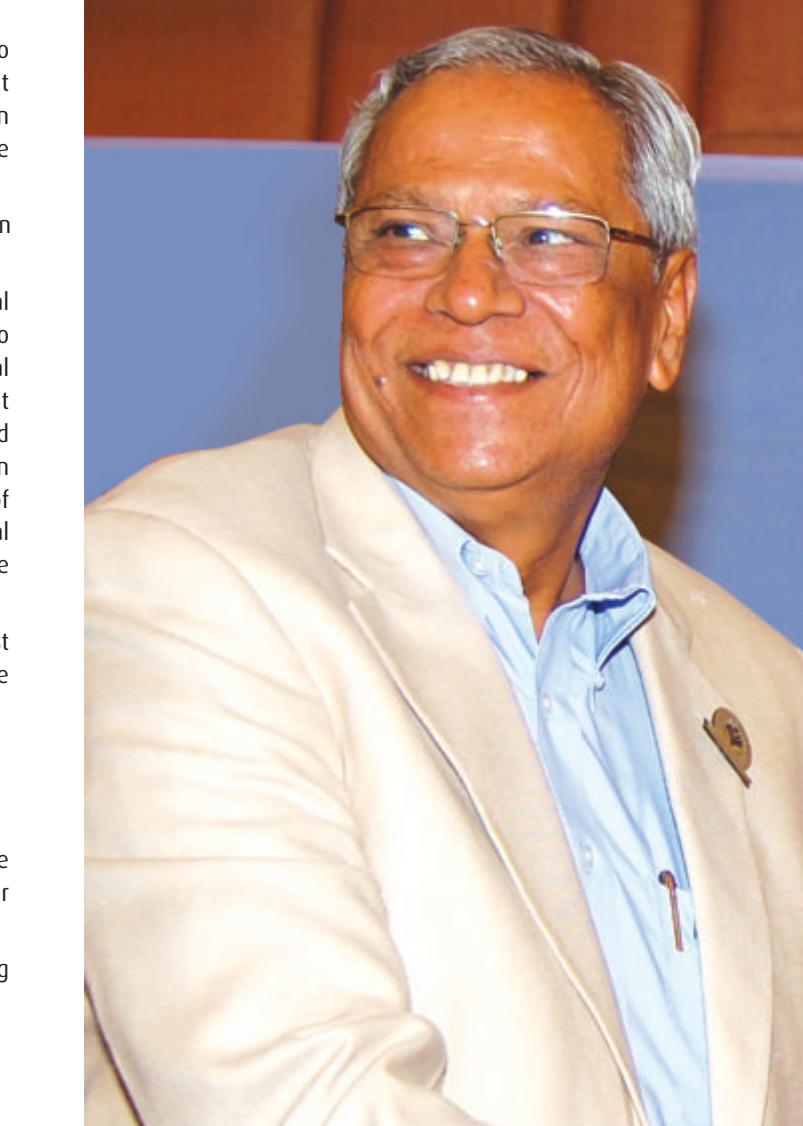

The motto of the Ganpat University is in line with the life philosophy of aforesaid great personalities ensuring social welfare through education. While we, at the Ganpat Vidhyanagar, are on the verge of completing almost two decades in our mammoth task of shaping young minds through imparting quality, professional and technical education, our vision to scale newer heights is also getting After establishment of the university in the year 2005 it has been in the continuous focus that courses which enable the students for their professional life must be availed and tireless efforts should be made to mould students' life in the field of their interest. These efforts have resulted in the emergence of different institutions working as constituent colleges of the Ganpat University under aegis of Mehsana District Education foundation. The institutes are offering standardized qualification in the professional fields like engineering, pharmacy, computer application, management, science, education and technology. The education had been availed to the students coming across the states.

While these facts may seem quite satisfying, this is not the juncture where we intend to stop. It is indeed our earnest desire to outshine our own achievements in the field of education. We aspire to have a lion's share at least in the development of Gujarat state through education.

This reminds me the quote from the revolutionary American Poet 'Robert Frost'...
“These woods are lovely dark and deep, but I have promises to keep,
And miles to go before I sleep, and miles to go before I sleep.”

This ignites the spirit in us that even though the university has successfully achieved several of remarkable achievements but still the quest is not over and university will continue in its endeavor of achieving higher destinations and offering the best service to the nation and region.

We are desperate and determined to continue our contribution to the nation development by creating youth having quality education. It would be a matter of great pride for us if our youth comes true in this expectation laid on them. Bless you all for effective development of life and career.

Innovative Project Idea Competition (IPIC)

An "Innovative Project Idea Competition – 2014" was organized by the U. V. Patel College of Engineering for the students of UVPC and coordinated by Dr. Bhavesh P. Patel, (Asso. Prof., ME) and Prof. HirenPrajapati (Asst. Prof., ME) under the guidance of Dr. Paresh H. Shah, Principal of U. V. Patel College of Engineering from 25th to 27th September 2014.

The main purpose for conducting such a competition is to enhance the knowledge of student and motivate them to compete in the global competitive engineering field and they can become aware about : fast growing technologies, its real applications in industries, knowing about other innovations, building of their inherent abilities and improvement of their communication by sharing their knowledge with others.

Main focus of the project idea competition was to improve quality of life of people, improving the environment and contributing to economic development of the nation. All project ideas were from engineering field, for new products or improvement in existing products or processes. It could also be of proposing a better method of analysis or design, use of materials or waste materials, optimized use of resources, including energy requirement, improving sustainability, safety or adding value to products or processes.

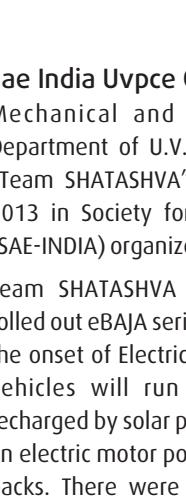

This competition has provided a platform to budding engineers to showcase their creative and innovative project ideas to compete in the global competitive engineering field.

The selected innovative project ideas are completed by students under the guidance of respective departmental faculty member/members under observation of respective departmental head. The students prepare a proposal for getting funds for prototype development of their ideas along with detailed description of their proposed project, outline of project work and approximate costing of the proposed project. The prepared proposal would be submitted to the event coordinator for further procedure.
